Mission Statement

St. Vincent de Paul is a faith community striving to live Jesus' gospel message of love, peace and justice for all peoples. In the spirit of St. Vincent de Paul, our inclusive community welcomes, affirms and serves both the poorest of the poor and those who are alienated and most vulnerable among us. Our individual faith journeys join together in the celebration of the Eucharist. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we will continue to nurture the gifts of all our members. Our parish family will draw strength and unity from diversity. We will foster an atmosphere of warmth, hospitality and prayerfulness. We pray that our commitment to these efforts will further the mission of being one with our God and one with each other.

CALLING ALL ST. VINCENT'S PARISHIONERS!

As most of you know, St. Vincent's has a website <<http://saint-vincent-church.org/>> where you can download the latest bulletin, check Mass times, and get contact information for parish staff. However, did you know that you can also find:

- schedules for lectors and altar servers?
 - a calendar of events?
 - news and writings from your fellow parishioners?
 - ministries, staff bios, announcements, and more?
- The parish website ministry has been working hard to make our site both engaging and useful. But we can't do it alone – we need your help! Here's what you can do:

- If you're a ministry, please send us whatever you'd like for us to put on your ministry page, be it photos, an updated schedule, anything.

-If you're a shutterbug, please send us your photos! We'd like to have a gallery showing the vibrancy of our parish life!

-If you're coordinating an event at St. V's or elsewhere, then please let us know the details so we can include it on the calendar.

-If you just have something you'd like to share with the parish, perhaps a reflection or a poem, then send it along.

To make it easier, email anything you have to web@saint-vincent-church.org. And finally, we are always looking for people to join the ranks of the web ministry. If nothing else, your feedback and encouragement are essential, so let us know how we could serve you better.

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN UPDATE

We have pledged about $777,000 and in less than a year have over $440,000 raised thus far. This will be used for: Roof, if needed, handicap bathroom, handicap parking/drop off, handicap entrance to Rectory and Chapel, refurbish present bathroom, repair Sacristy with handicap ramp and new cabinets, bring choir risers and altar to code, replace church floor and add air conditioning, touchup interior of Church. If you haven't pledged, please do so. See Father Sy.

PRAYERS NEEDED

Please pray for Fr. Joe as he deals with issues related to cancer. He is in the infirmary. Visitors are welcome.

NEW SANCTUARY MOVEMENT

New Sanctuary Movement is seeking more supporters to accompany undocumented immigrants in court. An NSM staff member guides the group in prayer and then into court where they sit and witness the proceedings without comment. This quiet presence means a great deal to frightened immigrants. An email message comes from NSM telling date, time, and place, and supporters go when they can. To volunteer email:

blanca@sanctuaryphiladelphia.org. For more details, call Gene Cleaver at 610-360-3496 or Mary Regan at 215-848-9489.

POWER UPDATES

St Vincent's is a member of this vibrant interfaith community organization that works on eco-nomic dignity, criminal justice reform, fair school funding, and immigrant issues. Contact Terri Burgin (215-651-0100) or Mary Laver (610-324-9388) for more info, or for rides to these events:

HARRISBURG TRIP for FAIR EDUCATION FUNDING/ENDING EDUCATION APARTHEID: Wednesday, June 21

This will be a great family field trip for you and your kids/ grand-kids the day after school's out - educational and inspiring to see "democracy in action" in one of the most beautiful and historic Capitol buildings in the nation. Food and bus service (from St Malachy's) provided free by POWER. Carpool from St Vincent's at 7:30; buses leave St Malachy's at 8:30, and will be back at St V's by 6pm. Hundreds will join us from around the city and state.

Here's why your presence matters: Research by POWER and the Education Law Center shows that on average, majority-white school districts receive $2000 more per child from the state than majority-African American or Latino districts - across the state, not just in SE PA. No matter whether your children attended public, charter, or private schools, we can stand together for the right of ALL Pennsylvania children to a fairly-funded, high-quality education!

St. Vincent's POWER meeting: Mon June 26 at 6:30 PM in the rectory.

FR. SY'S AFRICAN APPEAL

Prayers of the Faithful

Trinity Sunday, June 11, 2017

In these distressing times at home and abroad, may the Goodness of the Holy Spirit move hearts of world leaders to understand, comfort, and trust in his infinite Wisdom. For this we pray . . .

On this Trinity Sunday when the Church remembers and honors God: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; may we experience the transformation that a deeper understanding of our faith brings. For this we pray . . .

On the occasion of the celebration of the First Mass for our newly ordained , Father James Watson, may his service to the Triune God, Mother Church and the world be the fulfillment of all that his heart has desired, and lead to many blessings for his family and this faith community, we pray. . .

As our children and their teachers prepare for summer vacation and graduation, we pray that they will be always safe and continue to grow spiritually and intellectually. For this we pray. . .

May those who are infirm, struggling with addictions, and suffering from loss of hope be witness to the infinite mercy and patience of a Loving God. For this we pray. . .

The UPDATE

May/June 2017
Newsletter

Edition III, Volume 12

The Mission of the Martin de Porres Foundation: The goal of the Martin de Porres Foundation is to develop lay leadership among African American/Black Catholics. This is achieved through undergraduate and graduate education as well as training in Ministry and Leadership skills. The Foundation supports these lay leaders in their efforts to advance Catholicism in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

RETIREMENT!! Deacon William Bradley

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia recently announced the retirement of Deacon William Bradley, Director of the Office for Black Catholics, effective June 30, 2017.

The Martin de Porres Foundation would also like to congratulate Deacon Bill, for his upcoming retirement. We applaud him for his dedicated years of service and achievements. After the many years of working together, we will try to adjust to the idea that he no longer works in the OBC. But, this is not the end of his career of inspiring, spiritually uplifting, and helping to develop leadership and Vocations for the Priesthood and the Diaconate within the African-American/Black Catholic Community.

Again, we send congratulations on a well-deserved retirement. Few have worked as hard as Deacon Bill. We believe, he will continue to enjoy and focus some of his energy into working with our Church and community.

Father Richard Owens, New Director of the Office for Black Catholics – Archdiocese of Philadelphia

Father Richard Owens was ordained on June 7th, 2014 at St. Augustine Church in Pittsburgh. He is a native of Philadelphia and was born in 1982. Father Owens is the oldest of two siblings. He attended Our Lady of Hope Grade School and Mercy Vocational High School in Philadelphia. Fr. Owens is the son of Mary & Richard Owens.

St. Raymond of Penafort Men's Ministry Raises Monies with Musical Events: Arlene Edmonds Tribune Correspondent – May 5, 2017

The Men of St. Raymond of Penafort Church in Mount Airy raised money by holding a jazz night. — Photo by Arlene Edmonds

The St. Raymond of Penafort Church in Mount Airy raised monies through its men's ministry for the independent St. Raymond Mission School. This was the first of two sold-out, back-to-back benefits for the church located at 1350 E. Vernon Road. The Men of St. Raymond held a jazz night in the school hall recently. The following afternoon the church hosted "An Evening of Mahalia Jackson" featuring singer Joilet Harris in the sanctuary.

The Rev. Christopher M. Walsh, pastor of St. Raymond's, was pleased with the overwhelming response for the events. Together they raised thousands of dollars for the church ministries. "The parish is most grateful to all those who have worked so generously to raise funds for our hall renovation recently," Walsh said. "Mary Jones and Pat Brockington along with a very large crew of helpers raised more than $1,400 with their Good Friday fish fry. Joanne Evans, along with her very able team, raised more than $3,500 through the Mahalia Jackson tribute concert."

The men's ministry raised even more money from the jazz event. Otis Wilson said that they reached their goal of at least $1,000. He said that the monies will be used for some needed upgrades at the school that serves children in the surrounding community from kindergarten to eighth grade. The school is no longer under the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, so the resources are welcome. Read more

BEFORE & AFTER MASSES

Who are we?

Under the Same Moon (UTSM) is a non-profit organization that helps support a primary school, Bendición de Dios, in San Juan Alotenango, Guatemala. Bendición de Dios educates about 500 children, most of whom cannot afford the $250 in annual costs needed to attend the "public" schools there.

We raise money by collecting donations & selling handcrafted items made by Guatemalan indigenous artisans and locally sourced Guatemalan coffee, Dean's Beans.

UTSM works directly with artisans & artisan cooperatives to follow fair trade practices. Thus, our purchases also provide opportunities for greatly improved earnings for the artisans.

FIVE FINGER PRAYER

3 The following finger is the tallest. It reminds us of our leaders, the governors and those who have authority. They need God's guidance.

4 The fourth finger is the ring finger. Even though it may surprise you, it is our weakest finger. It should remind us to pray for the weakest, the sick or those plagued by problems. They need your prayers.

5 And finally we have our smallest finger, the smallest of all. Your pinkie should remind you to pray for yourself. When you are done praying for the other four groups, you will be able to see your own needs but in the proper perspective, and also you will be able to pray for your own needs in a better way.

2 The next finger is the index. Pray for those who teach you, instruct you and heal you. They need the support and wisdom to show direction to others. Always keep them in your prayers.

1 The thumb is the closest finger to you. So start praying for those who are closest to you. They are the persons easiest to remember. To pray for our dear ones is a "Sweet Obligation."

Black Lives Matter at St. Vincent's

"What does it mean to be Black and Catholic? It means that I come to my church fully functioning. That doesn't frighten you, does it? I come to my church fully functioning. I bring myself, my Black self, all that I am, all that I have, all that I hope to become. I bring my whole history, my tradition, my experience, my culture....."

-Sr. Thea Bowman of Canton, Mississippi (1990)

"Bear one another's burdens and in doing so you will fulfill the law of Jesus Christ."

-Galatians 6:2

At St. Vincent's Parish, our support for Black Lives Matter is rooted in our deep Catholic understanding of the fundamental dignity of all life and our understanding that God is always on the side of justice for the oppressed in the human story (Matthew 25:35-40).

A multi-racial group led by some of our black parishioners has been meeting for months to study Black Lives Matter and discern a way forward for discussion and the possible creation and display of a parish banner as a communal demonstration of support.

The origins of Black Lives Matter is described in the following excerpt found on the Black Lives Matter website:

"#BlackLivesMatter-was created in 2012 by three women of African descent, two of whom are queer identified. After the murder of Trayvon Martin, Trayvon's killer, George Zimmerman, was acquitted for his crime, and the dead 17-year old was posthumously placed on trial for his own murder. Rooted in the experiences of Black people in this country who actively resist our dehumanization, #BlackLivesMatter is a call to action and a response to the virulent anti-Black racism that permeates our society. Black Lives Matter is a unique contribution that goes beyond extrajudicial killings of Black people by police and vigilantes."

(Paraphrased from the blacklivesmatter.com/herstory/)

#BlackLivesMatter is working for a world where Black lives are no longer systematically and intentionally targeted for demise. Black Lives Matter affirms the humanity, resilience in the face of deadly oppression, and innumerable contributions of black folks to this society. It recognizes and celebrates the sweat equity and love for Black people now put into creating a political project—"taking the hashtag off of social media and into the streets. The call for Black lives to matter is a rallying cry for ALL Black lives striving for liberation."

Black Lives Matter is committed to:

Collectively, lovingly and courageously working vigorously for freedom and justice for Black people and, by extension all people.

intentionally building and nurturing a beloved community that is bonded together through a beautiful struggle that is restorative, not depleting.

- acknowledging, respecting and celebrating difference(s) and commonalities.
- embodying and practicing justice, liberation, and peace in engagements with one another.
- practicing empathy

While we at St. Vincent's recognize the intersection of multiple forms of oppression, the statement "Black Lives Matter" follows the long legacy of Black liberation movements that has always ultimately supported and benefitted the liberation movements of all oppressed people.

"Black Lives Matter at St. Vincent's", therefore, is a statement of love for Black folks. It is a challenge to us all to live the love we proclaim as we build relationships across race and heal America's historical narrative. As Catholics of all ethnicities, "Black Live Matters at St. Vincent" also calls us to recognize the historic role of our Catholic Church in creating and maintaining systems of racial injustice-even as we have continued to work against oppression. This work will require us to struggle together across a difficult terrain but to do so trusting God and holding on to one another in hope.

During this Resurrection season, we are challenged to make closer connections across race, gender and age and sexual orientation. We are mindful that we have all been affected, particularly white folks, by the participation in unjust systems since the beginning of our nation, which have made us all blind to the ways we help sustain them. St. Vincent's Black Lives Matter study group invites you to our upcoming reflections and community conversations to be announced this Easter and Pentecost season. Is God calling you to help move the stone of racism in our church and world, this Easter season? For more information please see below.

VOICES FROM PRISON AND THE EDGE

Spring 2017
No. 26

*"They cuff me like an animal,
Lock me up like an animal,
And I am lonely."*

"More than half of prisoners in the United States have a mental health problem."

--2006 Justice Department Study

--Johnny

Our Spring issue of Voices From Prison and the Edge is devoted to the reality that our American society criminalizes mental illness. "People are not officially incarcerated because of psychiatric ailments, but that's the unintended effect," writes Nicholas Kristoff in an article on this topic in the New York Times, (February 2017). Statistics below are from this article.

"Psychiatric disorders are the only kind of sickness that we as a society regularly respond to not with sympathy but with handcuffs and incarceration. And as more humane and cost-effective ways of treating mental illness have been cut back, we increasingly resort to the law-enforcement toolbox: jails and prisons. "More than half of prisoners in the United States have a mental health problem, according to a 2006 Justice Department study. Among female inmates, almost three-quarters have a mental disorder. In jail (in Cook County, Chicago), some prisoners sit on their beds all day long, lost in their delusions, oblivious to their surroundings, hearing voices, sometimes talking back to them. The first person to say that this system is barbaric is their jailer." ...OR A FELLOW INMATE!--one who notices the humanity of the person and responds in kind. We received the following letter from an inmate-- call him "Johnny"-- that poignantly illustrates the issue of mental illness in prison and how a person's compassion is the best medicine:

Fr. Paul, I'm sorry for the delay in my responses to your letters. I've been in and out of the hole and out of my mind! I'm trying to have a sense of humor about it, but it's really not funny. I just got 150 days in DTU (Mental Health Hole). It's a long story but the gist of it is this: a C.O. (Corrections Officer) made something up on a bogus misconduct for something I didn't do, just to get me out of the way. I was unaware of this until the team was at my door telling me to pack. "You're going to the hole." I snapped, got hit with a 10% grade OC spray, and given a black eye. This happened in November. I've been a little stressed out, but I'm doing a little better. I get a little peace of mind locked in this cell by myself. The C.O.s and inmates can't bother me and I have my tablet, so the music helps a lot. I also made friends with another inmate. "Derek" is 27, a little slow and has severe mental help problems. Everyone treated him bad because he was acting crazy. He doesn't have any electronics and can't read or write. When he snaps (even I have never seen this happen before), he rips out desks bolted to the floor, beats the door, and tears light fixtures clean out. He usually does this when he quits taking his meds, which is often. He's three cells away from me and in another program. I'm the only MHU (Mental Health Unit) on this tier. I was put here originally as MHU overflow and I was supposed to get moved. To make a long story short, the kid just wanted someone to listen to him and he's not that crazy (just a little bit). I got him to take his meds for three weeks now and told him how pleasurable he is to talk to on his meds. I told him that with meds he's normal, a human being, even if others still treat him like an animal. A few data snapshots that illustrate the problem: (from the Kristoff article)

Nationwide in America, more than three times as many mentally ill people are housed in prisons and jails as in hospitals, according to a 2010 study by the National Sheriffs' Association and the Treatment Advocacy Center.

"Taxpayers spend as much as $300 or $400 a day supporting patients with psychiatric disorders while they are in jail, partly because the mentally ill require medication and extra supervision and care. "Finally, this is the stupidest thing I've seen government do," Thomas Dart, the Sheriff of the Cook County Jail in Chicago says, "It would be far cheaper," he adds, "to manage the mentally ill with a case worker on the outside than to spend such sums incarcerating them."

In 1955, there was one bed in a psychiatric ward for every 300 Americans: now there is one bed for every 3,000 Americans, the 2010 study said. So while more effective pharmacological treatments are theoretically available, they are often very difficult to access for people who are only borderline functional. "Some people come here to get medication," says Ardell Hall, a superintendent of a woman's unit at the jail. "They commit a crime to get in."

Listen as Johnny continues his story about relating to Derek in the Mental Health Unit in a Pennsylvania prison:

He likes country music so I blast music, running my tablet through a broken desktop radio. Well even the COs saw a difference in Derek. They started to give him extra food and so forth. When the Lieutenant went to move me to the MHU tier, Derek yelled out "Don't move my boy! He talks to me. Please! I've been doing good." (This was so sad but it brought a smile to my face). I never hesitate, 24 hours a day, to answer when Derek calls my name. Even if I am asleep, he's not a headache...I like him. The staff sees the change and knows I can work with him when even they can't. Many CO's and two psyches have thanked me. The Lieutenant says, "Well I don't want to be the one that causes you to get 41 more years." He was smiling as he ripped my MHU door tag off and walked away. I'm still MHU, but I remain here. I go to group and yard with MHU and they think I'm crazy now. Good!

This brings to mind a Gospel story, Jesus' intervention with a "possessed" boy (Mk 9:14). When the boy's father brought him to Jesus, it says that the boy fell to the ground in convulsions, foaming at the mouth. Very scary! Jesus' reaction—compassion instead of fear and "locking them up like animals"—is an example for us. We notice this compassion in how Johnny treats Derek almost like his son—at the expense of being considered crazy himself. Is this what Jesus has done, become 'crazy with us,' at least considered crazy and dangerous for "casting out demons"? The next time you see a mentally ill person, think of Jesus. Finally, Johnny concludes with a profound image of Mary in the prison cell with him. Surely it is something to ponder ourselves, no matter what addictions, family troubles, emotional illnesses or loneliness afflicts us in our daily lives:

They cuff me like an animal. Lock me up like an animal, and I am lonely. Sometimes I look at the Mary Mother of Captives picture you gave me. Depending on my state of mind I use it as a reminder that the Blessed Mother is in the cell with me too. Her back to the locked gate, she's holding the fetters that bind me because she wants me to be free, if only in the cell with her.

She knows who I am and not what the courts or prison officials say I am. She sees past the violence and the chaos I am capable of causing. She sees into my heart at the pain inside. And she holds what binds me to her own heart. I am hanging in there, struggling like hell, still doubtful, but I promise I won't give up hope. Love is paid by love alone. -- Johnny.

In conclusion, Mary knows who we are too. She holds the fetters that bind us because she wants us to be free too, if only in the cell with her. She sees into our hearts at the pain inside. And she binds us to her own heart. Pray for Johnny, Derek and their families. Pray—and make your voice heard—for our country too as we make decisions about mental health care and criminal justice. Demand compassion! Have Blessed Spring, Fr. Paul, George Munyan and the Adeodatus Team.

AN AUGUSTINIAN PRAYER

Oh HOLY BREATH OF GOD BREATHE ON US GATHERED HERE, THAT WE MAY BE FILLED WITH YOUR HOLY SPIRIT, AND SO BECOME YOUR FRIENDS. OH, HELP US TO LIVE AND LOVE WITH ONE HEART AND MIND IN YOU, AND SO BECOME YOUR CHURCH, THAT OTHERS MAY BE DRAWN TO FRIENDSHIP WITH YOUR SON, JESUS CHRIST, OUR LORD.

TODAY MANY OF US LONG FOR COMPANIONSHIP, YET EXPERIENCE DEEP LONELINESS IN OUR DAILY LIVES. GRANT US THE GRACE TO GRASP AND LIVE WHAT JESUS MEANT WHEN HE TAUGHT: "GREATER LOVE THAN THIS NO ONE HAS THAN TO LAY DOWN YOUR LIFE FOR YOUR FRIENDS." TOGETHER WITH THE POOR IN SPIRIT IN THIS WORLD, MAY WE LISTEN WITH THE EARS OF OUR HEARTS TO YOUR HOLY WORD IN SCRIPTURE.

MAY WE RECOGNIZE YOU IN PRISONERS OF EVERY KIND, AND WORK WITH THEM FOR THE FREEDOM AND JUSTICE OF YOUR KINGDOM UNTIL WE SEE YOU FACE TO FACE. IN JESUS NAME, WE PRAY. AMEN.

Saints in Prison

St. John Stone

O.S.A.

Most see all prisoners as outlaws, people outside of the law. They are the guilty ones. But who will speak for the innocent, living and dying in prison? John Stone probably looked like any prisoner as he staggered by in chains on the way to Dungeon Hill. His story presents us with a question. Are we guilty if we break an unjust law, or is society guilty for creating the unjust law?

John Stone was an Augustinian monk living at Canterbury, England in the 16th century. He publicly denounced the behavior of King Henry VIII for divorcing his wife, marrying another, and declaring himself head of the Church of England. A law was passed, the Treasons Act, which declared all as criminals who did not accept the King, rather than the Pope, as the head of the church in England. The punishment was prison, torture and death, if you did not accept the king as head of the church. All bishops, priests and religious were required to obey this law. The Bishop of Dover, who had renounced the Pope, visited Canterbury to close the Augustinian friary as ordered by King Henry VIII. The Bishop ordered all of the monks to sign the document declaring the King as head of the church.

John Stone refused to sign and was imprisoned in the Tower of London. In 1539 he was sent back to Canterbury, and tried under the Treasons Act. Found guilty, he was sentenced to death. Before his execution on Dungeon Hill, Stone said: "I close my apostolate in my blood. In my death I shall find life, for I die for a holy cause, the defense of the Church of God, infallible and immaculate". John Stone was hanged to near death, briefly revived in order to feel his disembowelment, and finally, his limbs were severed. To further dishonor his corpse as a traitor, his head and body were left displayed, unburied as a reminder to all, the need to obey the king. Instead St. John Stone obeyed his conscience and was willing to die for it.

One doesn't need to be a martyr for faith to be unjustly imprisoned.

The Innocence Project is a witness to this. A record-breaking number of people were exonerated in 2015 — freed after serving time in American prisons for crimes they did not commit. In all, 149 people spent an average of 15 years in prison before being cleared last year, according to a new report from the National Registry of Exonerations, a project at the University of Michigan Law School. The convictions ranged from lower level offenses, such as 47 drug crimes, to major felonies, including 54 murder convictions that were overturned. Five of the convicts were awaiting execution, and were saved last year when courts ruled they didn't belong in the prison in the first place.

LET US PRAY...

O Lord our God, in the name of our Daughters and Sisters of Nigeria we come to you on bended knee in prayer. In the heat of this day, suffering and hardship has visited young ones and we beg you, almighty Father, Son and Holy Spirit to bring forth release and mercy on those who have been captured, sold and raped. Reverse O Lord, the spirit of the captors. Restore O Lord, the hope of these young innocent girls and bring Recovery to them and their families. Relieve the injured and Redeem O Lord, this situation and drench it with Your love and mercy. We remember O Lord, how You set the captives free in Egypt and how You carved a way to freedom by splitting the waters of the Red Sea. We remember, O Lord how Your mighty hand brought David out of the lion's den and we ask You, O Lord to do the same for our dear young Sisters and Daughters. We come to You this day, knowing the fullness of Your amazing grace which makes a way out of no way. We thank You O Lord for what You can do and will do in Jesus' name- Amen
