Mission Statement

St. Vincent de Paul is a faith community striving to live Jesus' gospel message of love, peace and justice for all peoples. In the spirit of St. Vincent de Paul, our inclusive community welcomes, affirms and serves both the poorest of the poor and those who are alienated and most vulnerable among us. Our individual faith journeys join together in the celebration of the Eucharist. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we will continue to nurture the gifts of all our members. Our parish family will draw strength and unity from diversity. We will foster an atmosphere of warmth, hospitality and prayerfulness. We pray that our commitment to these efforts will further the mission of being one with our God and one with each other.

INTERCESSORY PRAYER CIRCLE

After each Mass, those wishing to pray for something specific or to pray for those with special needs can come and pray or become a part of the prayer circle. This should last about 5 to 10 minutes. It will be led by our Lay Leaders of Prayer.

FATHER HUGO

On September 1st, Fr. Hugo will be assigned to Our Lady of Guadalupe, in Charlotte, N.C. We thank him for his presence and sharing.

ELECTRONIC GIVING

It's easy. It helps the church. Please prayerfully consider signing up, if you do not already give electronically. There is a simple form in your bulletin.

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

FINANCIAL REPORTS

These will be mailed to all registered parishioners in August, after the fiscal year ends.

POWER UPDATES

St Vincent's is a member of this vibrant interfaith community organization that works on economic dignity, criminal justice reform, fair school funding, and immigrant issues. Contact Terri Burgin (215-651-0100) or Mary Laver (610-324-9388) for more info:

LIVE STOP: Have you or a friend/ family member ever experienced a "Live Stop" where a car was towed on the spot because of the lack of proper paperwork (license, registration, insurance)? If so, please contact Mary Laver or Fr Sy. POWER is assisting New Sanctuary Movement in gathering stories about the devastating financial impact of this practice, in an effort to convince city officials that it is just as safe—and far less costly—to grant drivers 30 minutes to get a licensed friend to drive the car to a home location rather than to a PPA lot. This impacts thousands of Philadelphians every year, many of whom forfeit their vehicle if they can't cover fees within a few weeks. Thank you for your help as we organize to change this!

FR. SY'S AFRICAN APPEAL

Every year, I ask friends and family to help me make a difference in VINCENTIAN AFRICA. I don't "mail" my appeal letters to my St. Vincent's family, but they are in the back of the church. I hope that you would take one and read it. Pray about it. You have been so wonderful in your support and in bringing Hope to so many. Thank you.

NEW SANCTUARY UPDATE ON MARCO

Recently we asked for your prayer as Marco, the man whom we have been accompanying for over a year, was to appear in court for a deportation hearing. The hearing did not happen and his situation remains the same until further notice. Thank you for praying. Let us continue to be aware of the suffering of many decent people who fear the breakup of family that comes from deportation. The idea that was recently expressed by the head of I.C.E. that undocumented immigrants should be deported before they have a chance of committing a crime is odious. Let our voice be heard to thwart the inhumane governmental actions being taken.

BASKETBALL CAMP

Camp is at St. Ephrem's air-conditioned facility for one or two weeks July 24-28 and July 31-August 4 under direction of former college coach, Dan Williams. More information at DANW1001@aol.com.

LEGION OF MARY DAY

Save the date: Saturday, July 29 for a day of worship, prayer and fellowship beginning at 10am at The National Blue Army Shrine of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, 674 Mountain View Road, Washington, N.J. Contact Michael White 732-910-2070 or queenshipofmary.michael@gmail.com.

CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

We collected $1,119.24 last week for this worthy cause. Thank you.

PETITIONS FOR ST VINCENT DE PAUL CHURCH
July 15-16, 2017

- We are a people of hope; we plant seeds even in the face of harsh conditions. Energize our senses with your Spirit, Lord.
- Give us vision, Lord, that what is unseen with physical eyes, we may see with the eyes of faith. Give us understanding, Lord, even when we find it difficult to believe our ears.
- Bless, Lord, the work of the Legion of Mary, the ministry of women and men empowered with God's love and inspired by the example of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
- Strengthen all who reach out in service to needy communities, who work to redress injustices and foment peace. May our personal and parish ministries in these areas produce fruit a hundredfold.
- We pray for peace in our cities, international understanding and solidarity with people of all races and colors, created, as we are, by the same loving God.
- We pray for those who are suffering and seek the grace of generously responding to those in pain, united as we are in faith with Christ's sufferings.

KATHERINE J. GRANTHAM: The funeral for the mother of Terri Grantham-Peebles is Monday, at 10 am. Please keep them in your prayers.

CONSIDER URGING CONGRESS TO PASS HR 2200, THE TRAFFICKING VICTIMS PROTECTION ACT: The Frederick Douglass Trafficking Victims Prevention and Protection Reauthorization Act of 2017, would reauthorize the Trafficking Victims Protection Act (TVPA) of 2000, the original foundational anti-trafficking legislation in the U.S. Supporting H.R. 2200 is an important step the US can demonstrate to continue our nation's efforts to eradicate human trafficking, assist human trafficking victims and ensure critical funding for both domestic and international anti-trafficking programs. The USCCB's Committee on Migration has issued a letter of support for H.R. 2200, but we need your help. Urge your U.S. Representative to pass H.R. 2200 to protect victims of human trafficking by sending the following message:

Dear Representative,

As a concerned Catholic, I urge you to support H.R. 2200. I firmly believe in the dignity of the human person and this belief calls on me to protect the most vulnerable, including victims of human trafficking. H.R. 2200 is important, as it reauthorizes the TVPA, providing service provisions that will aid victims. Supporting H.R. 2200 will ensure that our nation's efforts to eradicate human trafficking and assist human trafficking victims continues. I thank Congress for its long-standing commitment to confront modern-day slavery. As a Catholic, I stand ready to support victims and appreciate your work to eradicate human trafficking.

Sincerely,

WHAT IS INTERCESSORY PRAYER?

Intercession or intercessory prayer is the act of praying to a deity on behalf of others. In Western Christianity, intercession forms a distinct form of prayer, alongside Adoration, Confession and Thanksgiving.

The Bible is clear that all Christians are called to be intercessors. All Christians have the Holy Spirit in their hearts and, just as He intercedes for us in accordance with God's will (Romans 8:26-27), we are to intercede for one another.

God calls all Christians to be intercessors. It is God's desire that every believer be active in intercessory prayer. What a wonderful and exalted privilege we have in being able to come boldly before the throne of Almighty God with our prayers and requests!

The fundamentals of Christian life include intercession "on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests." Intercessory prayer is part of the Christian life for all believers.

Intercessory prayer reflects God's own character of outgoing love and mercy. God wants us to think like He does, and praying for others helps us to think beyond ourselves and to grow in compassion for others.

JOIN OUR INTERCESSORY PRAYER CIRCLE

After each Mass, those wishing to pray for something specific or to pray for those with special needs can come and pray or become a part of the prayer circle. This should last about 5 to 10 minutes. It will be led by our Lay Leaders of Prayer.

NBCC to Explore the Call to Live the Gospel in Challenging Times

By Dennis Sadowski • Catholic News Service • Posted June 13, 2017

Fr. Stephen D. Thorne is pictured in this 2016 file photo.

WASHINGTON (CNS) — Delegates attending Congress XII of the National Black Catholic Congress in Orlando, Florida, in July will take on new responsibilities this time around.

Rather than working from a draft of a pastoral plan developed prior to the congress as per tradition, the 2,000 attendees will be tasked with developing a pastoral plan during the July 6-9 gathering and taking it home to their parishes and dioceses.

"We're interested in what the people have to say, what's in their hearts.

It's what they want to see addressed (by the Catholic Church)," said Father

Stephen D. Thorne, pastor of St. Martin de Porres Parish in Philadelphia and a congress leader.

"In the end, what is finally approved, we hope to see it reflected in the pastoral plan of the local bishop," he told Catholic News Service. "Whatever the goals are — an African-American Catholic saint, or Catholic education and Catholic schools being viable in our communities and supporting them, or the violence of young people — can be included. St. Vincent de Paul Church Welcomes Father James Watson, O.F.M. Capuchin

Fr. Sylvester (Sy) Peterka, pastor, members of the congregation and guests welcomed Fr. James Watson, O.F.M. Cap on Sunday, June 11, 2017 as he celebrated his Mass of Thanksgiving. The Homilist was Rev. Rayford Emmons of Holy Cross Church. Parishioners from across the Archdiocese of Philadelphia witnessed Fr. Watson's "Home Coming."

Reflection by Dr. Camille Lewis Brown

Associate Director of Religious Education, Archdiocese of Baltimore

Fr. James Watson,
O.F.M. Capuchin

James Watson was a Seminarian at St. Charles Borromeo in the late 1990's. His dedication to serving others was an affirmation of his vocation to the priesthood. It was evident that God was calling James Watson, he was listening and willing to answer "yes" to God's invitation. On June 9, 2017, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, James Watson was ordained to the priesthood with a First Mass Celebration the next day in Philadelphia surrounded by family and friends. His journey to the altar was a long one but never a lonely one. From St. Charles Seminary to life outside the Seminary, James served as a teacher at St. Cyprian School and Director of Religious Education at St. Cyprian Church. He was an avid bowler in Philadelphia (now bowling with new friends in Cumberland, Maryland where he is assigned). James would make his way eventually to The Capuchin Friars to begin another segment down the road towards becoming an ordained priest. Along this road, James visited Benin, Ghana and Togo, West Africa to share his faith with others. As a Capuchin Brother, James also served the people of Tanzania with compassion, energy and creativity. He left an impression on the youth and elders of this great African country that will long be remembered.

Father James Watson never let his smile and warm manner dip throughout his first Mass. He was delighted by our presence, humbled to have been chosen for this vocation and grateful to his parents for his past life and future life as a priest. With a past and future filled to the brim with the love and support of family and friends, Father Watson blessed us. He prayed an extra special blessing for Deborah and James Watson, his parents.

The Hardest Talk: Racism in Parishes

By Arlene Edmonds • Posted June 20, 2017

Catholics from across the Philadelphia Archdiocese are now applying what they learned from the four-part series, "Growing in Racial Harmony within the Catholic Church," held this year in several parishes. Because it took a hard look at a fundamental unit of church life, the final session "Racism and Prejudice in Our Parishes" may be one of the most challenging to implement. It examined differences in ethnicity and social class within church communities, especially those without ethnic diversity.

Although the last session was held May 22 at St. Athanasius Parish, in Philadelphia's West Oak Lane section, the implementation of the series is ongoing, say those who attended. (See related stories on the kickoff of the series in January and a follow-up session on race.)

Janice Paige, a member of St. Athanasius, said the May discussion was the most important of the four-part series on race because it is one that is often "swept under the rug."

Paige believes this is because in society, and even within Catholic parishes, racial differences are more obvious. Many people, she believes, do discriminate against those who have different levels of education, types of job or even the parish one belongs to.

Black Lives Matter at St. Vincent's

"What does it mean to be Black and Catholic? It means that I come to my church fully functioning. That doesn't frighten you, does it? I come to my church fully functioning. I bring myself, my Black self, all that I am, all that I have, all that I hope to become. I bring my whole history, my tradition, my experience, my culture....."

-Sr. Thea Bowman of Canton, Mississippi (1990)

"Bear one another's burdens and in doing so you will fulfill the law of Jesus Christ."

-Galatians 6:2

At St. Vincent's Parish, our support for Black Lives Matter is rooted in our deep Catholic understanding of the fundamental dignity of all life and our understanding that God is always on the side of justice for the oppressed in the human story (Matthew 25:35-40).

A multi-racial group led by some of our black parishioners has been meeting for months to study Black Lives Matter and discern a way forward for discussion and the possible creation and display of a parish banner as a communal demonstration of support.

The origins of Black Lives Matter is described in the following excerpt found on the Black Lives Matter website:

"#BlackLivesMatter-was created in 2012 by three women of African descent, two of whom are queer identified. After the murder of Trayvon Martin, Trayvon's killer, George Zimmerman, was acquitted for his crime, and the dead 17-year old was posthumously placed on trial for his own murder. Rooted in the experiences of Black people in this country who actively resist our dehumanization, #BlackLivesMatter is a call to action and a response to the virulent anti-Black racism that permeates our society. Black Lives Matter is a unique contribution that goes beyond extrajudicial killings of Black people by police and vigilantes."

(Paraphrased from the blacklivesmatter.com/herstory/)

#BlackLivesMatter is working for a world where Black lives are no longer systematically and intentionally targeted for demise. Black Lives Matter affirms the humanity, resilience in the face of deadly oppression, and innumerable contributions of black folks to this society. It recognizes and celebrates the sweat equity and love for Black people now put into creating a political project—"taking the hashtag off of social media and into the streets. The call for Black lives to matter is a rallying cry for ALL Black lives striving for liberation."

Black Lives Matter is committed to:

Collectively, lovingly and courageously working vigorously for freedom and justice for Black people and, by extension all people.

intentionally building and nurturing a beloved community that is bonded together through a beautiful struggle that is restorative, not depleting.

- acknowledging, respecting and celebrating difference(s) and commonalities.
- embodying and practicing justice, liberation, and peace in engagements with one another.
- practicing empathy

While we at St. Vincent's recognize the intersection of multiple forms of oppression, the statement "Black Lives Matter" follows the long legacy of Black liberation movements that has always ultimately supported and benefitted the liberation movements of all oppressed people.

"Black Lives Matter at St. Vincent's", therefore, is a statement of love for Black folks. It is a challenge to us all to live the love we proclaim as we build relationships across race and heal America's historical narrative. As Catholics of all ethnicities, "Black Live Matters at St. Vincent" also calls us to recognize the historic role of our Catholic Church in creating and maintaining systems of racial injustice-even as we have continued to work against oppression. This work will require us to struggle together across a difficult terrain but to do so trusting God and holding on to one another in hope.

During this Resurrection season, we are challenged to make closer connections across race, gender and age and sexual orientation. We are mindful that we have all been affected, particularly white folks, by the participation in unjust systems since the beginning of our nation, which have made us all blind to the ways we help sustain them. St. Vincent's Black Lives Matter study group invites you to our upcoming reflections and community conversations to be announced this Easter and Pentecost season. Is God calling you to help move the stone of racism in our church and world, this Easter season? For more information please see below.

LET US PRAY...

O Lord our God, in the name of our Daughters and Sisters of Nigeria we come to you on bended knee in prayer. In the heat of this day, suffering and hardship has visited young ones and we beg you, almighty Father, Son and Holy Spirit to bring forth release and mercy on those who have been captured, sold and raped. Reverse O Lord, the spirit of the captors. Restore O Lord, the hope of these young innocent girls and bring Recovery to them and their families. Relieve the injured and Redeem O Lord, this situation and drench it with Your love and mercy. We remember O Lord, how You set the captives free in Egypt and how You carved a way to freedom by splitting the waters of the Red Sea. We remember, O Lord how Your mighty hand brought David out of the lion's den and we ask You, O Lord to do the same for our dear young Sisters and Daughters. We come to You this day, knowing the fullness of Your amazing grace which makes a way out of no way. We thank You O Lord for what You can do and will do in Jesus' name- Amen
