Mission Statement

St. Vincent de Paul is a faith community striving to live Jesus' gospel message of love, peace and justice for all peoples. In the spirit of St. Vincent de Paul, our inclusive community welcomes, affirms and serves both the poorest of the poor and those who are alienated and most vulnerable among us. Our individual faith journeys join together in the celebration of the Eucharist. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we will continue to nurture the gifts of all our members. Our parish family will draw strength and unity from diversity. We will foster an atmosphere of warmth, hospitality and prayerfulness. We pray that our commitment to these efforts will further the mission of being one with our God and one with each other.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The "Nuns of the Battlefield," were religious sisters from several communities who served as nurses in the Civil War. Florence Nightingale had only instituted female nurses a decade before in the Crimean War, so the idea of women tending to wounded soldiers was extraordinary. The medical and sanitary conditions on the battlefields were appalling, and the sisters were nearly all teachers. Few had any medical training beyond what they had learned as youngsters in the family. Anti-Catholic prejudice was so deeply entrenched in America that sisters could not wear their habits in public. These sisters were the first, and people on both the Union and Confederate sides soon began to marvel at their bravery, efficiency, and respect for Protestant soldiers. More than six hundred sisters from twenty-one communities went to war, serving in wretched conditions. They were tough and single-minded, efficient and fearless. After the war, sisters could appear in public everywhere in the reunited nation, and often received the praise and gratitude of grateful soldiers and family members on behalf of their sister nurses. An outdoor monument to the "Nuns of the Battlefield" stands in Washington at M Street and Rhode Island Avenue. The inscription reads: "They comforted the dying, nursed the wounded, carried hope to the imprisoned, gave in His name a drink of water to the thirsty."

POWER

Education Equity: Thank you to over 30 St Vincent's parishioners for joining the hundreds of families, teachers, and clergy who gathered at the State Capitol in Harrisburg on June 20 to press for full and fair state funding for ALL our children's public schools! More details to come, as we follow up, through POWER, with legislators on behalf of our children! Join us in demanding an end to widespread, systemic educational inequality throughout Pennsylvania by advocating that 100% of the state's Basic Education Budget go through Pennsylvania's Fair Funding Formula, as proposed in Rep. Rabb's House Bill 2501 which has already received bipartisan support. Write or call your representative now.

Petitions for July 7-8—St. Vincent de Paul Church

Note: At the 11 a.m. Mass add "Let us pray to the Lord" .

Lord, inspire all who have responded to the prophetic call to mission this summer with selfless service to other communities. May we put worldly pursuits in perspective, hear God's call, and answer it.

Strengthen us, Lord, lest we forget you and your people during vacation time. May we remain connected through daily prayer, meditation and service.

O God, instill in us greater trust in you. Help us to be strong when we feel inadequate because of weaknesses or inexperience and free us to become passionate disciples.

Lord, raise up holy ministers in our church;
compassionate, moral leaders in government;
courageous servants of our communities. Spirit of God,
work in the world today.

We pray for all who are suffering, for the sick, for victims of crime, for those recovering from natural disasters, and for children and parents who are separated. May God ease their pain, give them strength, and fill their hearts with hope.

Chestnut Hill Meals on Wheels

COULD YOU OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW BENEFIT FROM DAILY HOME DELIVERED MEALS?

Who is eligible to receive meals from Chestnut Hill Meals on Wheels?

Any person residing in the following zip codes - 19031, 19038, 19075, 19118, 19119, 19150, 19444, and a portion of 19144.

- A senior (62 or older) - no matter what their physical health
- Any person of any age whose disability makes it difficult to shop for food and prepare meals without assistance.

What comprises a daily delivery?

Each daily delivery consists of

- cold lunch – sandwich (choice of bread), salad, fruit, juice or milk, homemade dessert
- hot dinner – soup, dinner (vegetable, starch, protein or pasta/meat), milk or juice, homemade dessert. Soups and entrées are in microwaveable containers.

How much does it cost? How do I pay?

These 2 meals cost $9.00/day. One meal costs $4.50 a day.

Clients are asked to pay a $90 fully refundable deposit at the start of service. This deposit will be applied to your final invoice. If there is no balance at the time you suspend service, the full amount will be refunded to you.

Clients receive invoices during the first week of each month covering payment for all meals received during the prior month. They may give payment directly to volunteers at a future delivery or may mail payment in self-addressed envelope accompanying the invoice. Cash, checks or money orders are acceptable methods of payment. We do not accept credit card payments.

What if I don't need meals everyday?

Meals are available for delivery every weekday and you may choose to get delivery on any or all of those days. We do not currently deliver on weekends.

Do I have to sign up for a specific period of time?

We ask that you sign up for a minimum of a two-week period. Emergency, shorter-term deliveries will be accommodated.

What time is the delivery?

Volunteers will deliver your food between 10 am and Noon on the days you have scheduled.

What if I'm not home when the meal is delivered?

If you will not be home at the time of delivery, you may place a small, sealed cooler with an ice pack outside your door and our volunteers will leave your meal in that container. We ask that you put your name on the cooler if you live in an apartment. If it's possible to notify us beforehand, we will be able to advise your volunteer driver that you will not be home.

What if I go on vacation or am away from home for other reasons?

You are always able to suspend delivery for any period of time you wish and for any reason. If you provide us with a 24-hour notice, you will not be charged for that day's meals. Simply call our office (215.233.5555) to notify us as to the dates you do not want/need delivery.

Can I order from a menu?

While we attempt to accommodate food allergies, we cannot provide for every individual food preference. So, typically there is one lunch item and one dinner item featured each day. Menus rotate over a 2-3 week period. Our menus are planned with popular items in mind so we are confident that clients will always enjoy the meals.

Do you deliver on holidays? In bad weather?

If a holiday falls on a weekday, you can expect delivery on that day or the day prior.

We make every attempt to deliver in bad weather but if the Springfield schools are closed, we will likely suspend delivery. However, if we are aware a storm is approaching, we may deliver meals on the day prior to the storm.

If you have any additional questions, please feel free to call 215.233.5555 or email us at info@chestnuthillmow.org.

St. Vincent Family Dinners

Saint Vincent and the Poor, Kurt Welther (Austria, 1957-)

"I am the Bread of Life" (John 6:35)

Experiencing the presence of the risen Jesus at a meal, Eucharistic or not, is the takeaway message for today. How well do we prepare and enjoy our meals—Eucharistic or not? Fast food service is not the experience we want to bring to our table of fellowship. Slow food is better: planning, shopping, preparing, arranging, gathering with family and friends, telling stories, bonding, looking forward to life together away from the table. Meals, whether religious or social, signify acceptance and commitment. Sharing a meal says, "I want to be more a part of your life, and I want you to be part of mine." That's communion.

Jesus invites us to feed on him, that is, to draw his life into our own. If it is true that we are what we eat, then whoever eats his flesh and drinks his blood must in turn become a source of the grace received—a community grounded in love, service, nonviolence, and mutual emancipation. Meals give way to mission. The Eucharist is not complete until we bond with one another, fulfilling the commandment to love one another, one neighbor at a time. Bon appétit.

Fr. Richard M. Gula, PSS
Give Us this Day 8.4 (April 2018), 186-187

One neighbor at a time, or maybe four, six, or eight! We want to have dinners together because we really want to become a community of friends. We want to get to know each other better, and the best way to do that is to sit at the table just to enjoy each other's company around good food and conversation. We propose to have dinners where members of the parish sign up for a meal without knowing who their hosts are, or even who the other guests will be, except for one other person if you want to go as a pair. We will start in June, and we hope by the fall everybody will be signing up enthusiastically as hosts or guests. The mechanics of how this will work will be explained next week. Meanwhile, if you are willing to host a blind dinner, please place a card with your name, some possible dates, and how many people you can host, but do it secretly! You will call your mystery guests and give them details. Perhaps ask them to contribute a simple dish, bread, or an appetizer for the meal. Perhaps just bring their appetites and their good will. It is very likely that we will all make new friends, and that our Parish will become stronger, a true people in communion.

Muriel was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Samuel Ancrum.

Muriel married her childhood sweetheart Samuel Ancrum on December 18, 1948 at Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Church in Charleston South Carolina. Later they relocated to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and joined Most Precious Blood Church, then St. Catherine's of Sienna and finally St. Vincent DePaul Church.

Her greatest joy was in raising her five children and being a homemaker. She had a gentle spirit and loved her family immensely.

Muriel always had a smile and a kind work for everyone she met. Muriel enjoyed cooking, listening to our father play the organ and attending church services.

Muriel leaves to cherish fond memories; one daughter, Antoinette Daniels, four sons, Bernard, Ricardo, Vincent and Vernon; a beloved nephew, William Brown. She also leaves a son-in-law, daughters -in-law, and a host of grandchildren, great-nieces, great-nephews and friends.

Prayerfully Submitted,

The Family
