Mission Statement

St. Vincent de Paul is a faith community striving to live Jesus' gospel message of love, peace and justice for all peoples. In the spirit of St. Vincent de Paul, our inclusive community welcomes, affirms and serves both the poorest of the poor and those who are alienated and most vulnerable among us. Our individual faith journeys join together in the celebration of the Eucharist. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we will continue to nurture the gifts of all our members. Our parish family will draw strength and unity from diversity. We will foster an atmosphere of warmth, hospitality and prayerfulness. We pray that our commitment to these efforts will further the mission of being one with our God and one with each other.

FR. SY'S AFRICAN APPEAL FOR HOPE

If you can help mail out this appeal, please call 215-438-2925.

PARISH LENTEN RETREAT: SATURDAY, APRIL 6

What is God's vision for your life? What do you need to let drop in order to be more authentically who God calls you to be? How might we begin to listen for the answers to those questions, not only individually, but as a faith community? Offered by the team planning our November retreat (Weaving God's Tapestry of Love), this special day will include time for presentation and prayer, contemplation and creativity. Mark your calendars for Saturday, April 6 (precise time TBA), and stay tuned for details!

POWER

Show up to support a Family-Friendly Philadelphia Platform! Sun March 24, 3 to 5 PM at Rodeph Shalom Synagogue, 600 block of N Broad St (parking in the back, off Green St). Note that this is a NEW location. Join POWER and many ally-orgs as we challenge candidates for mayor and council to publicly commit to supporting family-friendly policies on jobs, health, criminal justice, environment, immigration, and education. Sign-ups near the main church door. All are welcome!

Primary Season Voter Education: POWER doesn't endorse candidates, but our member-congregations urge eligible people to register and vote—and to evaluate candidates by how their policies impact people of color and the poor, especially. POWER will be organizing voter engagement days ahead of the primary election on May 21. Want to help boost turnout in Germantown? Contact Terri Burgin (215-651-0100) or Mary Laver (610-324-9388)

Save the Date for Harrisburg Fair Education Funding trip! Join us on Wed June 12 to tell legislators it's time to end our status as the state with the widest gap between over-funded and under-funded districts in the U.S. We need your voice! Help us represent St Vincent's at this event as a founding member of POWER.

BOXTOPS: HELP CATHOLIC EDUCATION

Please help Catholic education by clipping boxtops from some of your favorite products. A list is posted at the back of the church as is a container for the box tops. The more we collect, the more money raised, so ask your friends and family, too.

CRANALEITH SPIRITUALITY CENTER PROGRAMS

Cranaleith is a Spirituality Center sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy offering a contemplative space for those seeking transformation for themselves and society through retreats and programs. Flyers are in the back of church with programs, times and dates.

ART FOR ALL

We are excited to announce an art class on Monday mornings from 9-12 in the Hospitality Center. Bring your own supplies. No experience necessary. Call Lynne 267-294-4603 or Joy 215-805-4436 for more information.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL

Don't forget to support the Catholic Charities Appeal as it continues to impact those in need over the greater Philadelphia Area. Pledge cards are available in the pews or you may visit catholiccharitiesappeal.org to make your donation today!

AUCTION FOR CHARITIES

March - April 7 Court Ave Maria 650 is selling tickets to support various charities. Prizes: Spring baskets of cheer, alcoholic and non-alcoholic. Tickets: $2 or 3 for $5 sold after Mass.

HAPPY SAINT PATRICK'S DAY!

Prayers of the Faithful , Second Sunday of Lent , March 16-17, 2019

(At the 11 o'clock mass please add: Lord, hear our prayer)

Transform our daily lives as we live this Lent. Help us to discern how best to respond to the many ways we are being invited to pray, fast and be of service to our neighbor.

Transform the Church through those who are preparing to become full members. May the catechumens and candidates, especially Thalia Monteiro and Grover Freeland, inspire us by their commitment to live more fully in Christ.

Transform the lives of those who are displaced through war and oppression, those who struggle each day to survive. May they find hope through the men and women whose organizations bring relief.

Transform the darkness that covers those held by opiod addiction. Help us grow in our understanding of addiction and increase our efforts to respond with knowledge and compassion.

Transform the pain of those suffering from dementia. Help them find peace and help those who attend them know they are caring for God's beloved.

Transform the suffering of those facing the pain and anguish of death. May the darkness give way to the glory of resurrection.

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR MARCH 9TH AND 10TH, 2019

We Celebrate Women's History Month

One way of bringing about an inclusive Church is to use inclusive language. "A Church for Our Daughters" website describes how valuable this change could be: "On any given Sunday, God is almost always named in male terms, even though Scripture proclaims that women and men are both made in God's image. Might our daughters conclude that God is male and they are not made in God's image? Might they conclude that they are secondary, derivative, less than men? In building a Church for our daughters (as well as our sons), why not draw upon and express in public worship the abundant, diverse expressions of God in our Scripture and Tradition."

Please pray for Susan Alba, daughter of Bertha Allen, who died this week. Pray for Bertha and her family.

MASSSES: Rosary will be in the Chapel, thirty minutes before weekend Masses. Confession will be available thirty minutes before each weekend Mass. The celebrant will be sitting in the Church.

FAITH INSPIRATIONS (DYNAMIC FAITH SHARINGS DURING LENT): On Friday, March 22nd, at 7 pm, Tom Volkert will be speaking on "Dealing with Loss in the Light of our Faith."

EXPOSITION OF BLESSED SACRAMENT: Friday, from noon until 3 pm, in the Chapel. Saturday, after 8 am Mass, for one hour.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS: Friday, 6:30 pm, in the Church.

FR.SY'S APPEAL FOR HOPE: Fr. Sy will soon need volunteers to help mail out his African Appeal for Hope. If you can help, please call the office at 215-438-2925.

TIRES FOR SALE: The following tires are being sold by Jerry Smith. They are in good/fair condition. Price is negotiable. Jerry can be reached at (215) 508-0427.

Please pray for Shyamirr Wallace, a 12 year old sixth grade student at DePaul Catholic, who has Stage 4 Hodgkin's Lymphoma.

Singer-songwriter Bobby Jo Valentine returns to Philadelphia!
Friday 10 May 2019!

Bobby is a successful recording artist—he's released five albums that demonstrate his musical gifts and he has won several music industry awards. He writes his own songs—a mixture of folk and pop styles. At his concert he will be featuring songs from his new album, Maybe Stars!

Bobby was last in Philadelphia in January 2015. He's well known in his home state of California. His following has continued to grow on the east coast and we were lucky to get him to add this date on his east coast tour.

The concert will benefit My Place Germantown, a non-profit organization that provides permanent supportive housing for disabled, formerly homeless males.

To get re-acquainted with his music, check out his webpage: <http://www.bobbyjovalentine.com> or his iTunes page.

I imagine you will be enthralled with his music—as I am. I'd like to invite all of you to attend.

DATE & TIME: Friday 10 May 7:30 PM

LOCATION: St. Vincents Roman Catholic Church
109 East Price Street
Philadelphia, PA 19144

COST: $20 (advance sale) or $25 at the door.
Children under 12: $5.00.

Tickets are available for sale now.

A Kairos Moment

As I write this, we are entering the desert of Lent. A dark Lent it looks to be indeed in the Church. Every day, it seems, there are more revelations of betrayal and crimes committed by the hierarchy worldwide. Australian Cardinal Pell is sentenced to six years in prison, convicted of sexual assault of two choirboys. Cardinal Philippe Barbarin is found guilty by a French court of covering up sexual abuse by one of his priests. The bishops' summit in Rome on the protection of minors is being reported as a dismal failure. It wasn't the devil that made them do it, as Pope Francis suggested, but rather, writes Jamie Manson in the National Catholic Reporter, "These men destroyed [the Church] all by themselves by enforcing a warped view of sexuality, making the preservation of their patriarchal rule their first priority and trading in cover-ups, lies and institutional blackmail."

Sick to death of this rot poisoning the institutional Church, I have never been so tempted to leave. I find I cannot bring myself to go to Mass. I am not alone in this. A survey last year by America found that a majority of American Catholic women are disengaging from the Church, especially young women. Jessica Mesman Griffith, for example, recently wrote of her own estrangement in the blog Sick Pilgrim: "When I realize trauma therapy has become a kind of religious practice for me, I miss church. I am every bit as lost as all the churchy folk warned I would be without it. But I cannot bring myself over the threshold." I too miss church. For consolation, I read the psalms. On Shrove Tuesday, one takes aim and hits the mark of my heart. I went about as one who laments for a mother, bowed down and in mourning. And yet, as I mourn, words from Isaiah come to mind: I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

The prophet speaks for God: I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? Something is happening here. Michael Higgins, in the first column of this forum, "A Catholicism Under Siege," wrote that we are in "a Kairos moment." Kairos: one dictionary defines it as "a time when conditions are right for the accomplishment of a crucial action: the opportune and decisive moment." To say this is Kairos time, a Kairos moment, is to say that we must act, with wisdom, before it is too late and the moment has passed.

I keep coming across this idea of Kairos time. Marybeth Chuey Bishop engages it creatively in "Doing the Time Warp at 2 a.m.," an entry to her blog In Ordinary Time that revisits Rocky Horror Picture Show's song Time Warp ("It's astounding! Time is fleeting!"). Unable to sleep, she pulls out her grandmother's rosary as a soporific. The rosary is broken, which leads Bishop to reflect: the beads take us in a "predictable circle" of the life of Jesus. "But what if it's broken? What if the end doesn't come back to the beginning in a stable, but is able to spiral through time, Kairos time instead of Chronos? What if it reached ... all the way here?"

Last fall I felt I had a glimpse of Kairos time at a symposium for the Catholic Women Speak Network in Rome, which was held to coincide with the Vatican's Synod on Youth. Catholic women gathered together from all over the world, working to make women's voices heard in the Church. Some of us were on a panel about sexuality, abuse and power. Like Higgins, Nontando Hadebe, a South African theologian, called for "radical change," said this was a Kairos moment, like apartheid, time to take a stand. "God is a God of new things!" she proclaimed. "We want a radical reconstruction! We need to be having visions of what a Church looks like that doesn't look like anything we know!" Hadebe had ideas: We must not look away from this abyss in the Church, "a culture of toxic brotherhood that comes at the expense of women and children." There must be communal action by the bishops, a time of sackcloth and ashes, with every Catholic church and seminary shut down. All the Church is to speak out, as part of a prophetic theology, especially the marginalized voices of women: a Church that doesn't look like anything we know... now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?
